

Study Abroad

- Finding and choosing a school
 - location (country; urban vs. rural; accent and dialect)
 - focus (business, technical, academic, etc.)
 - daily, weekly, term schedules
 - class sizes
 - instructors
 - level (flexibility, suitability for your level, control)
 - cost
 - services (homestay, dormitories, insurance, health services, legal services)
 - support (counseling, emergency, insurance)
 - certificate or degree awarded
 - endorsements from graduates
- The Japanese Student in the International Classroom
- Education and society
- Links
 - ESL School Directories <http://www.eslusa.org/>
 - <http://www.studyusa.com/>
 - <http://www.globalstudy.com/index.shtml>
 - <http://www.usastudyguide.com/eslschoolsinusastates.htm>